LODGES

P. H. C.
At our last regular meeting several candidates were elected. The attendance was large. Our next regular meeting, Wednesday, May 8, will be commenced at 7 p. m., sharp in order to throw the doors open to the public for a fine entertainment prepared by the committee. Four hundred tickets have been sold. It is for the benefit of the band and everyone is hustling to help the boys along.

THE CHEVALIERS.
Our order still flourishes. Scarcely four months since its organization, and nearly 1,000 applications written. Monday our Supreme Secretary went to Canton, where he instituted a large and enthusiastic Castle. On Tuesday evening a car of Castle No. 1's jolly members visited Barborton Castle No. 2. About 15 members were obligated, the team of Castle No. 1, doing the work. Each officer, and members of the team of Castle No. 1 has been provided a handsome telescope for his convenience in caring for his uniform. Since our last notes, Chevalier John Forbes has been called to his reward. Suitable resolutions and condolences were sent his bereaved wife. His certificates in the Chevaliers well provide for the widow. Beautiful floral offerings were placed on the casket by Castle No. 1, of which he was a member. Our work in Washington continues to flourish. Wednesday evening of this week, one of the most prosperous Castle of the Chevaliers was instituted at Youngstown by Sup. Sec. Myler. The enthusiasm displayed by this Castle is almost phenomenal. Thursday evening, May 2nd, more than 100 Chevaliers went to Cleveland where a Castle of over a hundred was instituted by the officers and team of Castle No. 1, they being deputized for that purpose.

Several excellent musical selections were splendidly rendered while the committees were preparing their reports. After the installation of the officers, the large and social gathering marched to the banquet hall adjoining, where Cleveland's best caterer displayed his skill in this line. The last special left Cleveland at 12:45, bearing a part of Akron's lively members, the others having returned earlier in the evening. Chevalier Price is the right man in the right place at the right time for the right purpose. Of course, he was graciously assisted by Mrs. Crowley and others of the good

DAUGHTERS OF ST. GEORGE.
